

VOCAL RECITAL HELD AT WEBER

Pleasing Program Introduces New Voices to Ogden Audience

The opening recital of the first music festival given by the Weber Normal college school of music was held on the college campus last night by vocal pupils of W. H. Manning, the school of music director.

Although the wind somewhat interfered with the singing program the program was unusually entertaining and gave the audience an insight into excellent standard set by the local school.

Following the recital Mr. Manning was accorded congratulations of the listeners, who not only spoke of the pleasing qualities of the singing, but complimented the director on the character of the selections.

OPENING SOLO.

The program opened with a soprano solo by Mrs. Adeline Hatch. Mrs. Hatch has a full rich voice, pitched low and mellow, and she made a pleasing impression in her rendition of "April Calling," by Speaks.

Miss Violet Sanford, a contralto, sang "A Bowl of Moss," (Sanderson) with telling effect. Mezzo soprano solos, "If You Would Love Me" (McBride) and "In the Garden of My Heart" (Cora Roma) were sung by Miss Myra Wright in a charming manner. She was followed by Miss Josephine Larkin, soprano who sang "Dearest Beloved" (Giordani) and "It Was the Rose Who Sighed" (Franz). The lyric qualities of Mrs. Millie Miller's voice were clearly evident in her number "Sacramento," by McDermid. Her tones are really robust and clear in the low or high registers.

Another mezzo soprano was Mrs. Annie M. Harrop, whose voice was given ample opportunity for expression in the hitting "Welcome Pretty Primrose," by Piusotti. She also sang "Absent" (Metcalfe).

CHARMS LISTENERS.

Miss Adelaide Ashton, already a singer of some local note, charmed her listeners with "Saint-Saens' My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice." Her nerve and vivacity was also demonstrated in the sentimental, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" (Sullivan) and "The Lost Chord" (Sullivan) and Habenera (Carmen, Bizet) were sung by Mrs. Pauline Waterfall with clear understanding of the theme in a voice of mezzo pitch that is particularly appealing, especially in songs of sentimental or tragic nature.

Miss Eva Porter closed the program with two soprano solos, "My Lullaby" (Hayes) and "Good-Bye" (Tosti). Miss Porter has a wide range and is clear and unwavering even in the high register.

MIXED RECITAL TONIGHT.
